FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Attention Ambulance Owners

December 2, 2009- If you purchased or leased a model year 2003-2007 ambulance built with a Ford F-Series or E-Series ambulance prep package chassis equipped with a 6.0-liter diesel engine, please review this information to see if you are a member of the Settlement Class and may be entitled to reimbursement of certain engine-related repair expenses, an extension of your vehicle's warranties and other benefits.

The benefits to the member of the Settlement Class are:

1. Engine Warranty Extension to 72 months/120,000 miles
2. Covered Components; fuel injectors, EGR valve, A/C Compressor and turbo charger will be extended to 72 months/150 miles – providing they have received two or more repairs in the original 60 month period.
3. Claim can be submitted for expenses incurred for repairs with the time and mileage listed.
4. Towing reimbursement if the vehicle was towed more than twice in the original 60 month period.
5. Reimbursement of third or more $100 deductible charges for engine repairs in 60 month period

Effective August 3, 2009, the Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement became final and Ford is now providing the Settlement's benefits to class members. Below are the deadlines for the claims:

- Claims for reimbursement of costs incurred before August 26, 2009, must be received by February 1, 2010;
- Claims for reimbursement of certain towing or deductibles paid after August 26, 2009 must be received within 90 days of the date they were incurred;
- Claims for maintenance DVDs and hour meters must be received by December 31, 2010.
